Lindsey Bagley - ESS Monthly Summary:

February was my first full month with the school district. It's been a busy start, but I feel like I'm making good progress. Here is the current summary of our recruiting efforts for the substitute pool for the month of February:

- Substitutes

- Total Hired to Date–209
 - +9 from last week
 - Subs currently active and able to work— 207
- Pending hire – 52
- Initial stages – 28

- Absences

	Total Absences/Supplementals	Fill NOT Needed	Fill Needed	Filled	UnFilled	Held	Fill Rate
February 1-5	366	17	349	271	78	0	78%
February 6-12	386	29	357	303	54	0	85%
February 13-19	328	28	300	263	37	0	88%
February 20-26	357	23	334	290	44	0	87%
February 27-28	70	6	64	52	12	0	81%
Month	1507	103	1404	1179	225	0	84%

- Long Term Needs

- Currently we have 14 Long Term requests with 12 current/filled

- Accomplishments

- We have had several new substitutes start teaching a few days a week.
 - I'm still processing and following up on applications daily

- Goals

- Continue to find substitutes willing to work at least 1 day a week

- Ask schools/teachers to get their jobs in ASAP and before 24 hours when possible.

▪ Obstacles

- Absences entered within a few hours of the absence date
 - Increased absences on Thursdays
 - Making sure schools are entering in the admin notes when they have colleagues covering colleagues

This week was our best week so far. We end the first week of March with a 92% fill rate.

	Total Absences/Supplementals	Fill NOT Needed	Fill Needed	Filled	UnFilled	Held	Fill Rate
March 1-5	297	46	251	232	19	0	92%
