Mike Nelson - Fantastic Week In Phoenix:

I've been fortunate to spend a few days with 47 talented building leaders at the Professional Learning Communities (PLC) at the Work Summit. The learning here has been dynamic with 2400 educators of all kinds representing all levels from around the nation.

The other best part - 7 of the 10 keynote/breakout presenters featured will be in Coeur d'Alene in August.

On Wednesday, we took an hour to debrief, connect the dots, and discuss how we can take the "wins" from this trip and turn them into long-term impacts within buildings and our District.
