

3/5/21 - Weekly Board Notes

Mike Nelson - i-Ready Family Portal:

During our Monday Board meeting, a comment was made about whether our District is promoting the use of the i-Ready parent portal as part of our communication and outreach to support math instruction in grades KG-08. In order to properly answer this question, here are a few points:

- The i-Ready Family Center is a public website. There is no “parent portal” for i-Ready where parents can log-in and receive student reports. Therefore, there is no username/password nor ability to track how many parents are using this resource.
- There are “family letters” included in our Ready Math instructional materials. Teachers have been asked to share them throughout the year to demonstrate the concepts being taught in class and they include a family activity to practice as well. A sample is included below.
- On the i-Ready student dashboard, students can see their growth over the school year and the interactive lessons provided to fill gaps and extend classroom work. Two examples from my son’s account are linked here.
- We have included links to the i-Ready Family Center in regular communications, such as with our last elementary results newsletter.

If you’d like more details, please feel free to reach out.
