Albertsons/Safeway Saliva Based PCR Test – Phosphorous Diagnostics

Albertsons and Safeway have teamed up with Phosphorous Diagnostics to provide a saliva-based PCR test for COVID 19. Panhandle Health District (PHD) is providing a voucher which will enable uninsured school teachers, staff and students to get this test free of charge. The pharmacy will bill Idaho Department of Health and Welfare to cover the cost. The code for the voucher will be provided to schools by PHD. All others may submit a claim to their health insurance using the companies member medical claim form.

The test is organized and scheduled online at scheduleset.com and the test kit can either be picked up in store for those not exhibiting symptoms, or can be mailed to a provided address. Albertsons/Safeway Pharmacists will be writing the orders for the test. Once the sample has been provided, it is then placed in the packaging, and mailed to the address noted for diagnostics.
