

NEWS RELEASE

December 18, 2018

To: All Media
For story info: Alexis Keylon, Lake City High School BPA Historian, (208) 755-9515 or 20akeylon@students.cdaschools.org
Link:

Lake City High School Students Earn Regional Business Awards

16 Lake City High School students qualified to compete at the state level by achieving top placement in business-related events at the recent Region 1 Business Professionals of America (BPA) competition at North Idaho College Friday, December 14, 2018.

The following are the recipients of the Diplomat Torch Award by earning 30 points in 7 service-related categories: Casiana Azzolini, Jacob Baker, Madison Chase, Kendall Curry, Gracie Grubar, Ryland Hoit, Alexis Keylon, Karina Magnus, Lindsay Moss, Daniel Olvera, Sadie Sundahl, and Morgan Wingham.

The following are the award recipients who qualified for the State Leadership Conference and competition in Boise in March.

####

Cutline: 16 students who recently placed at the Region 1 Business Professionals of America (BPA) competition, qualifying them for the State Competition in March in Boise, Idaho. Pictured are, from left, top: Gracie Grubar, Lindsay Moss, Casiana Azzolini, Cameron Tony, Andrew Marroquin, Alexis Keylon, Ryland Hoit, Landen Hughes, Daniel Olvera, and Sadie Sundahl. From left, bottom: Karina Magnus, Morgan Wingham, and Logan Lechot. Not pictured: Madison Chase, Ryan Stephenson, and Joshua Hall.
(Picture attached)

