District Organization

The Superintendent shall develop an organizational chart indicating the channels of authority and reporting relationships for school personnel. These channels should be followed, and no level should be bypassed, except in unusual circumstances. Unless otherwise approved by the Superintendent, or (in the case of a Superintendent's relationship), by the Board, no supervisory status shall exist when the supervisor and subordinate maintain a romantic relationship.

The Superintendent shall have the authority to determine the organization, reorganization, and arrangement of the administrative and supervisory staff. The Superintendent shall exercise his or her judgement in making such decisions to best serve the District's students and patrons. The Superintendent is encouraged to inform the Board of decisions that will affect the organizational chart. The Board expects the Superintendent to keep the administrative structure in line with the needs for support, supervision, and accountability throughout the school system.
