

What do I do if I'm absent? See Sra. Currie immediately!!! :)

All make-up work is due within 2 school days. It is expected that you get your missed work the day you return to school, even if it is not your "scheduled" day for Spanish. It will be due with everyone else. Do not get it the day you return to class. It will be considered late by then & will not be accepted. If you do not know how to do it, you need to make arrangements to get help during lunch or after school. If there is a section you don't understand, you need to get help before the due date. Do not ask for help as class is starting. Homework is to be done PRIOR to entering class and is due immediately.

If you know you are going to be absent, you need to get your work ahead of time. If you are gone for an extended amount of time we will work on an agreed upon schedule for turning in make-up work. You need to be in communication with me via email or in person prior to the due date. Email works 24hrs a day. There is no excuse for not contacting me. Be advised, if you contact me after 4pm, I will not see the message until the next day & you may not get an immediate response.

All make-up exams need to be taken AFTER school within 2 school days. Make-up quizzes within 2 days also, but they can be done during both lunches or before school @ 7:30am. If you are a TA, you can make arrangements to take a missed quiz or test during that time. You cannot take a make-up exam during another class. Don't ask. If there is a due date for a major assignment, it is due ON or BEFORE that day. Have it turned in if you are going to be absent via another student, a parent, or email. The 2 school day make-up time also applies to any other major assignments or presentations.*

LATE WORK IS NOT ACCEPTED. If you have not finished an assignment, turn in what you have completed. You will receive partial credit.

All homework is worth 5 points. You should be scoring 4's & 5's on homework. If you take your time & do it right instead of rushing through it you should be scoring well on homework assignments.

Homework passes can be earned throughout the year. They will "excuse" you from a 5pt homework assignment. You do not get 5pts for the assignment.
