

November 16, 2018

Hello,

We have been very busy working on inventions as we prepare for Invent Idaho. We will be making display boards in class to go with the inventions. Hopefully your child will be able to complete everything here at school. Today, the students had the opportunity to present their inventions to a group of experts. We called it a Shark Tank – like the show on television. This group gave your child advice on how to improve his/her invention before it is presented at Invent Idaho.

Parent/teacher conferences are right around the corner, Monday, November 19 in the evening, and Tuesday, November 20 all day. If you still haven't signed up I do have times available and if those don't work, I'm sure we can find a time after Thanksgiving break to meet.

Don't forget, there is school on Monday, November 19, but that is the only day we have school next week.

Please check out the UPCOMING EVENTS section of this letter.

I hope you all have a wonderful and tasty Thanksgiving!
